

THE 4TH IOC World Conference on Women and Sport, held under the Patronage of His Majesty King Abdullah II and Queen Rania, in which more than 600 female and male delegates from National Olympic Committees, Organising Committees for the Olympic Games, UN specialised agencies and governmental and non-governmental organisations, resolved to:

1. Adopt the Dead Sea Plan of Action, which requires the support, active involvement and participation of all in order to be achieved;
2. Express gratitude to His Majesty King Abdullah II and Her Majesty Queen Rania for their patronage;
3. Thank the President of the Jordan Olympic Committee (JOC), Prince Faisal bin Al-Hussein, the JOC and the Jordanian Olympic Movement and people, for their outstanding services and hospitality and for providing all the necessary facilities for the conference to be successful; and
4. Request His Royal Highness Prince Faisal bin Al-Hussein to respectfully convey the gratitude and appreciation of the IOC and the participants to Their Majesties for their generosity and patronage.
