TOM Café is a great place to relax and refuel in a bright, airy setting, surrounded by the remarkable history of the Olympic Games.

TOM Café came into being with the Museum’s renovation (at the end of 2013), which also saw the creation of 3,000m² of exhibition space equipped with the latest technological innovations.

In warm weather, lunch or brunch on the terrace gives you the chance to take in the superb view while tasting the dishes concocted by chef Pascal Beaud’huin, who has been at the reins of the Museum kitchen since 2003 (he started out at Paul Bocuse’s restaurant in Lyon (FRA), before going to work at Frédy Girardet and Philippe Rochat’s restaurant in Crissier (CH)).
