Implementing Provisions of the IOC Code of Ethics

Rules for the Register of Consultants

Referred to in the Rules of Conduct for Continuous Dialogue with Interested Parties

Article 1

All consultants wishing to participate in or support a project for Future Host must be entered in the Register of Consultants on the list for the NOC of the Interested Parties concerned.

Entry in the Register is a prerequisite for the provision of any service and/or the signature of any service contract.

Registration in the Register of Consultants does not constitute any form of endorsement by the IOC.

A consultant is considered to be any individual or company who is not linked by an employment contract to the NOC or Interested Parties and who participates in or supports an Interested Party by providing consultancy or similar services, in any way and at any time.
Article 2

Entry in the Register is made through a written undertaking by the consultant to respect the IOC’s ethical principles, the Olympic Charter, the IOC Code of Ethics and its Implementing Provisions, especially the Rules of Conduct for Continuous Dialogue with Interested Parties and the Rules Concerning Conflicts of Interests.

The consultant binds him/herself personally for his/her activities, as well as for the activities of any person acting on his/her behalf or on behalf of his/her company.

Article 3

Such undertaking is made by following the electronic entry procedure accessible on the IOC website.

The IOC Ethics and Compliance Office is responsible for keeping and posting the Register of Consultants on www.olympic.org.

Article 4

Any failure to respect the IOC’s ethical principles, the Olympic Charter, the IOC Code of Ethics and its Implementing Provisions, especially the Rules of Conduct for Continuous Dialogue with Interested Parties and the Rules Concerning Conflicts of Interests, may lead to a sanction by the IOC Executive Board, such as the withdrawal from the Register for a specific period of time or a warning together with publication in an official IOC press release.

The procedure to re-enter the Register may take place only after the deadline specified by the IOC Executive Board.
Declaration of consent by the consultant

I, the undersigned, confirm:
– that I have taken note of the Olympic Charter, the IOC Code of Ethics and its Implementing Provisions, especially the Rules of Conduct for Continuous Dialogue with Interested Parties, the Rules Concerning Conflicts of Interests and the Rules for the Register of Consultants;
– that I have understood them;
– and that I undertake to inform all those acting on my behalf, or on behalf of the company I represent, about these Rules.

I undertake to respect these texts personally and to ensure their respect by all those acting on my behalf or on behalf of the company, which I confirm I am authorised to represent for the purpose of the present Declaration.

I undertake, personally and on behalf of the company, not to support more than one Interested Party and to inform the IOC Ethics and Compliance Office of any type of existing contract with the IOC.

I undertake, personally and on behalf of the company, not to refer in any way to this entry in the Register of Consultants for promotional or commercial purposes.

I undertake, personally and on behalf of the company, to keep the data of the entry up to date and to accept withdrawal from the list once services are no longer provided or the contract terminated.

I accept that the IOC Ethics and Compliance Office is entitled to request additional information or documents for the purpose of verifying compliance with the present Declaration, and that any refusal to provide such information may result in withdrawal or cancellation of the entry in the Register of Consultants.

I accept that the IOC may use the data linked to my entry in the Register of Consultants in accordance with the declaration on the processing of personal data.
I accept that any non-compliance by me personally or by any person acting on my behalf or on behalf of the company may be sanctioned and may lead to withdrawal from the Register of Consultants, in accordance with these Rules.

I accept any decision by the IOC Executive Board as final.

I accept that any dispute arising from or linked to the present Declaration or entry in the Register of Consultants will be submitted exclusively to the Court of Arbitration for Sport in Lausanne, Switzerland, for final and binding settlement in accordance with the Code of Sports-related Arbitration.
