APPENDIX A

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. INTERPRETATION

In case of incompatibility, conflict or divergence between the contractual documents included in the Agreement, they will be interpreted and prevail according to the following principles:

(a) First, the Research Project Agreement;
(b) Second, the Terms and Conditions (this Appendix A);
(c) Third, the Guidelines (Appendix B);
(d) Fourth, the Application File (Appendix D).

2. PROCESS

2.1. The Institution and the Grant Holder receive instructions from, and shall report to, the Foundation Contact Person.

2.2. The Institution will ensure that the Grant Holder undertakes the Research Project within the time frame described in the Schedule.

2.3. The Institution will ensure that the Grant Holder may not vary the Research Project submitted to the Programme in the Application File in any significant manner without the written consent of the Foundation.

2.4. Elements regarding the Research Project not listed in the Agreement may be added by mutual written agreement of the Parties.

3. GRANT

3.1. The “Grant” equals the amount determined by the Foundation under the Grant Amount, which corresponds to a percentage of the maximum grant value (USD 8,000), in consideration of the Funding requested under Section 4.10 of the Application File.

3.2. The Grant is intended to cover all research expenses directly related and essential to the Research Project, in accordance with the Guidelines and as described in the Application File, and as determined by the Foundation in the Grant Amount confirmed in the letter notifying the award.

3.3. Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties, all research expenses directly related to the performance of the Research Project shall be paid by the Foundation. All other costs are subject to the prior written approval of the Foundation.

3.4. The Grant will be provided in accordance with the following schedule and pro rata of the corresponding value:

- one half after the signature of this Agreement;
- one quarter after receipt of the Progress Report to the Foundation’s satisfaction; and
- one quarter on receipt of the Final Research Report to the Foundation’s satisfaction.

3.5. In the event that the Grant has not been fully spent once the Research Project is finished, the Foundation may:

- agree with the Institution to use the remaining funds for additional research or dissemination of the results; or
- adjust the total amount of the Grant to the real expenses related to the Research Project.

3.6. The Grant also covers the assignment of intellectual property rights as per Article 6 hereunder. Unless otherwise stated in the Research Project Agreement, the aforementioned Grant is inclusive of all taxes.

4. CONFLICT OF INTEREST

4.1. The Institution warrants that, at the date of entering into this Agreement, no conflict of interest exists or is likely to arise in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement or in the performance of the Research Project by the Grant Holder.

4.2. If a conflict of interest arises during the term of this Agreement, the Institution will immediately notify the Foundation Contact Person that such a conflict exists.

5. PERSONAL PERFORMANCE

The Institution shall ensure that the Grant Holder personally performs the Research Project and, if applicable, performs his/her coordination tasks as set out hereunder and he/she may not delegate or name a replacement, unless the Institution has received prior written authorisation to do so from the Foundation.

6. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

6.1. In direct or indirect relation to the Agreement, the Institution shall not and shall ensure that the Grant Holder does not, without the prior written consent of the Foundation, use or authorise the use of any of the Olympic Properties (as defined by the Olympic Charter), in particular, any Olympic emblem, trademark, theme, logo, mascot or other designation suggesting that they are a sponsor or supplier of the IOC or the Foundation.

6.2. The Institution warrants that, to the best of its reasonable and diligent knowledge, any product of the work related to and/or associated with the Research Project – including in particular any and all documents, texts, samples, still or moving images, etc. – which the Institution and/or the Grant Holder produce, make, devise, invent or develop within the framework of the Research Project (hereinafter the “Works”) does not violate any third-party rights, in particular intellectual property rights. Should the Works contain any third-party material, the Institution shall inform the Foundation and:

(i) confirm that the Institution and/or the Grant Holder (as applicable) has obtained any and all permissions for the use of such third-party material in the Works;

(ii) provide to the Foundation a copy of the written permission upon request.

6.3. The Institution shall ensure that it and/or the Grant Holder, as applicable, will grant, to the IOC & Affiliates a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free, perpetual license to use the Works for Institutional Purposes (the “Licence”); it being understood that the Licence shall not expire on termination of the Agreement.

7. PUBLICATION AND COMMITMENTS

7.1. The Institution shall ensure that the Grant Holder provides the Foundation with a progress report six (6) months after the Start Date (the “Progress Report”). This Progress Report will consist of a description of the project development, including an explanation of any major changes in the Research Project since submission of the Application File to the Foundation, an updated working schedule, describing the work already done, ongoing and to be done until the completion of the Research Project; and the identification of any difficulties the Grant Holder faces in conducting the Research Project (2,000 words maximum).

7.2. A final research report will be provided to the Foundation (in electronic version) no later than one year after the Start Date (the “Final Research Report”).

7.3. The Final Research Report should include a cover sheet and a table of contents, and be presented on A4 paper, numbered consecutively, typed in Arial size 12 font and using single line spacing. It will be made up of two (2) documents, which shall comprise:

- First document (approx. 40-60 pages):
  - An abstract (200 words maximum) and a list of key words;
  - An executive summary including a short description of the research topic and objectives and highlighting the main findings, conclusions and, if appropriate, recommendations (approx. 1,200 – 2,000 words);

- A 30-50 page (12,000-20,000 words) report, including the research subject and objectives; the academic significance of the project; the methodology applied; the key information sources consulted for the research project; and the results and conclusions of the research project.

- The annexes, including any additional information of interest for the project.
8. CONFIDENTIALITY

If the Foundation expressly designates in writing any information provided in connection with the Research Project as confidential (the "Confidential Information"), the Institution shall not, and shall ensure that the Grant Holder does not disclose to third parties such Confidential Information; it being understood that such obligation shall not expire on termination of the Agreement.

9. TIME FRAME AND TERMINATION

9.1. The present Agreement enters into force on the Start Date and ends on the End Date, unless terminated earlier or extended as per Articles 9.2 to 9.6 hereunder.

9.2. Notwithstanding the above, the Foundation may terminate the Agreement with immediate effect in case of material breach by the Institution of any of its obligations under the Agreement, which, if remediable, has not been remedied within ten (10) days upon receipt of the Foundation’s written notice, or in the event that the Foundation has reasonable grounds to believe that a material breach of this Agreement has been committed or is occurring.

9.3. If the Institution forms an opinion or could reasonably be expected to have formed an opinion, that the Research Project will not be completed within the Schedule, the Institution must (a) inform the Foundation of that opinion and (b) provide a new timetable setting out the expected time frame. Upon receipt of the above notification, the Foundation may (a) agree to the new timetable or (b) terminate the Agreement with immediate effect if the Research Project is not progressing at an acceptable rate.

9.4. If, for any reason, the Grant Holder is no longer in a position to continue performing the Research Project (e.g. because he/she is no longer an employee of the Institution or for any other reason whatsoever) the Foundation may terminate the Agreement with immediate effect.

9.5. In the event of the Agreement being terminated by the Foundation as per Articles 9.2 to 9.4 above, the Institution is not entitled to the complete Grant but shall be granted solely with a portion of the Grant pro rata for the Research Project actually performed until the effective end date of the Agreement.

9.6. The Institution may terminate the Agreement at any time by giving notice to the Foundation, provided that the Institution reimburses the Foundation for any amount of the Grant or expenses paid by the Foundation since the Start Date.

10. MISCELLANEOUS

10.1. Warranties and Representations: The Institution represents and warrants that it is free to enter into and fully perform its obligations under the Agreement and to grant rights to the Foundation as set out herein, and that the Grant Holder is free to perform the Research Project. The Institution will ensure, in any way necessary, the respect of the Agreement by the Grant Holder and that the Grant Holder carries out the Research Project in accordance with the appropriate scientific and academic standards. In particular, he/she shall comply with the ethical principles and avoid plagiarism or other similar research misconduct.

10.2. Relationship of the Parties: The Parties acknowledge and agree that the Agreement does not constitute for either Party hereto to be the agent of the other, or create a partnership, an employer-employee relationship, joint venture or similar relationship between the Parties, and neither Party shall have the power to bind the other Party in any manner whatsoever.

10.3. Entire Agreement; Waiver: This Agreement and its annexes represent the entire and integrated agreement between the Foundation and the Institution and supersedes all prior negotiations, representations or agreements, either written or oral, relating to the subject matter hereof. This Agreement may be amended only by written instrument signed by each of the parties hereto to this. All waivers must be in writing. No waiver by any party hereto, whether express or implied, of its rights under any provisions of this Agreement shall constitute a waiver of such party’s rights under such provisions at any other time or a waiver of such party’s rights under any other provision of this Agreement. No failure by any party hereto to take action with respect to any breach of this Agreement or default by another party hereto shall constitute a waiver of the first party’s right to enforce any provision of this Agreement.

10.4. Assignment: Neither this Agreement nor any of the Institution’s rights hereunder may be assigned, subcontracted or transferred without the prior written consent of the Foundation.

11. APPLICABLE LAW AND JURISDICTION

This Agreement shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of Switzerland. Any dispute arising from or in connection with the execution or interpretation of this Agreement or breach thereof which cannot be settled amicably, shall be submitted to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of Lausanne, Switzerland.
