I. MEETINGS OF THE INTERNATIONAL OLYMPIC COMMITTEE

1. General provisions

One Session of the IOC is held every year, except in the year of the Olympic Games, when a Session precedes both the Games of the Olympiad and the Winter Games.

In the year of the allocation of the Olympic Games, the Session may not be held in the country of one of the candidate cities.

Except in the Olympic year – when the Organizing Committee is responsible – the NOC of the country where the Session is held is responsible for the complete organization of the Session, but it may delegate its authority to a local Committee, of which the IOC member in the country must always be a member. This, however, does not exempt it from the responsibility.

The Organizing Committee shall give its assurance that no meeting concerned with sport will be held eight days before or eight days after any meeting organized by the IOC and not approved by the IOC.

The Organizing Committee may not use the Olympic emblem for publicity or commercial purposes without the formal approval of the IOC.

2. Invitations

Invitations from cities wishing to be host of a Session, except in an Olympic year, must be received by the IOC, through the NOC, two months before the Session at which the invitation will be discussed and at least three years before the Session concerned (i.e. in 1988 for 1991).

Invitations to the Session shall be sent by the Committee in charge directly to all members, at least three months before the Session, and a firm date shall be indicated after which no guarantee may be given for accommodation or other facilities.

Badges for the IOC members and the Secretariat, especially when the Session is held in an Olympic year, must be sent to IOC headquarters, which shall distribute them. They must not be sent to members via their NOC.
Badges for the Sessions, engraved with the name of the bearer, are the following:

White
Members of the International Olympic Committee, the Administrateur Délégué, the Secretary General of the IOC and the Sports Director of the IOC, and the Director of Olympic Solidarity (the surname shall be engraved on the lower part of the badge).

Guests accompanying the IOC members, the Administrateur Délégué, the Secretary General of the IOC and the Sports Director of the IOC, and the Director of Olympic Solidarity (one per person)

White with red stripe
Staff of the IOC General Secretariat

White with Blue stripe
Special guests (representative of Pierre de Coubertin’s family, International Federations and organizations recognized by the IOC, representatives of regional games).

Red with white stripe
Members and advisers of IOC Commissions who are not members of the IOC, IFs, NOCs or Organizing Committees

Blue
Presidents and Secretaries General of the Olympic International Federations

Blue with white stripe
Guests accompanying the Presidents and Secretaries General of the Olympic International Federations (one guest per person)

Green
Presidents and Secretaries General of the National Olympic Committees

Green with white stripe
Guests accompanying the Presidents and Secretaries General of the National Olympic Committees (one guest per person)

Red
Delegates of the Organizing Committees of the Olympic Games

Yellow
Written press

Yellow with black stripe
Photographers, cameramen, television crews

Orange
Representatives of contracting television networks

Purple
Organizing Committee of meetings
All badges shall be uniform, with only the ribbons (length: 8 cm, width: 3 cm) changing colour. The stripe shall be 10 mm wide placed in the centre and running down the length of the ribbon.

At meetings no accreditation may be granted without the IOC’s prior approval, except for those distributed directly by the Organizing Committee (purple and purple with black stripe ribbons).

A person may receive only one accreditation.

Six white badges and, for the meetings held at the time of the Olympic Games, 12 transferable B passes, shall be put at the disposal of the Secretary General of the IOC for any special assistants that the President or the Executive Board would like to invite.

Should the IOC or the Executive Board wish to meet representatives of the IFs, NOCs or Organizing Committees, invitations to attend the Session shall be sent out by the IOC and the list of guests forwarded to the Organizing Committee so that it may send further information (e.g. programme, etc.).

It is common practice for a member(s) of the Organizing Committee of the subsequent Session to visit the organizing city in order to become acquainted with the various problems which arise. The Session organizers are kindly requested to facilitate the task of such persons in every way possible and to accredit them as other Organizing Committee representatives.

3. Accommodation – General provisions

All members of the IOC shall be lodged in one hotel. A member may be accompanied by a guest benefiting from the same tariffs as the member.

The accommodation for members shall be provided at the most reasonable rates, with prices amounting to a maximum of US dollars 70 per day for a single room with bath and breakfast, and US dollars 100 per day for a double room with bath and breakfast.

The Organizing Committee shall provide, free of charge, a room and sitting-room for the President and the Administrateur Délégué of the IOC and bedrooms for the Secretariat (full board), in accordance with the requirements of the Secretary General.

The IOC may hold meetings with the IFs or NOCs, or meetings of its Commissions at a Session. These members, as well as the delegates reporting from the cities organizing the following Games (limited to 6 persons) and the IOC advisors invited to the meetings, shall be lodged on the same terms as members of the IOC. All other delegations or persons attending shall pay the normal commercial rates for that hotel. These delegates may be lodged in other hotels.
A pool of cars (or buses for collective transport) shall be kept available for the transportation of the members and their official company. A car must be available at all times for the President, the Administrateur Délégué and the Secretary General of the IOC.

A pool of hostesses shall be kept available for the members and their official company.

A commemorative photograph of all members shall be taken at the Session at the Organizing Committee’s expense.

4. Opening of the Session

The NOC of the host country (in Olympic years the OCOG) shall be responsible for arranging the opening ceremony. The ceremony must, except in the case of the Olympic Games, be performed by the Head of State. In the year of the Olympic Games, the Head of State, who will be opening the Olympic Games, may delegate his authority.

Besides the President of the host NOC, the President of the IOC and the Head of State may make a speech. No other persons are permitted to do so. The Head of State will officially open the Session at the request of the President of the IOC.

This opening ceremony, which must compulsorily include the Olympic anthem, should also contain a dignified programme which may include music and dancing, but the ceremony shall be strictly limited to one and a half hours. Seating at the opening ceremony shall be according to IOC protocol as printed below.

In the hall where the official opening of the Session will be held, there should be three groups: the centre being the IOC, on the right the IFs and NOCs and on the left the Organizing Committee and special guests. In the first row, the Head of State, the President of the IOC and the President of the host NOC with their wives will be seated.

Members of the IOC, in strict protocol order, will then follow, their wives at their side. Next come the Administrateur Délégué, the Secretary General, and the Sports Director of the IOC and the Director of Olympic Solidarity, the IOC advisors, then the special guests, the Secretariat of the IOC and finally any other guests of the members.

Press representatives will be allowed in the room.

5. Protocol

Rule 68 of the Olympic Charter of the IOC shall be effective at all Sessions and meetings approved by the IOC.

The spirit of the IOC Rules shall prevail in the protocol of all meetings;

The order of precedence at the official opening ceremony shall be:
1. IOC The President
   The Honorary President (if such is the case)
   The First Vice-President
   The Second Vice-President
   The Third Vice-President
   The Honorary Vice-President (if such is the case)
   The members of the IOC (including honorary members at the Session immediately before the Olympic Games) in order of seniority or original election date. Where more than one member was elected any Session, precedence shall be interpreted in alphabetical order of the principal family name.
   The Administrateur Délégué
   The Secretary General
   The Sports Director
   The Director of Olympic Solidarity
   The IOC advisors, special guests and members of the Secretariat.

2. Organizing Committee of the Games of the Olympiad.

3. Organizing Committee of the Olympic Winter Games.

4. International Federations.

   The Presidents (or other representatives) of the IFs recognised by the IOC and whose sport is on the Olympic programme, in alphabetical order as published in French in the «Olympic Directory».

5. National Olympic Committees.

   The Presidents (or their representatives) of the NOCs commencing with Greece, then proceeding alphabetically (in French) as published in the «Olympic Directory», with the host country last.

6. Organizing Committee of the Session or meeting. See IOC Rule 68.

7. Press by countries alphabetically in French or the language of the host country.

8. Staff and interpreters.

Receptions

At the opening ceremonies and receptions the above protocol shall be adhered to, but at seated dinners the IFs, NOCs and members of the host country may be interspersed in seating plans.

At formal presentations (e.g. to the Head of State, head of government) only spouses of the IOC members shall stand beside the member (on the left or right, as applicable) so that the member may introduce his spouse after the President has made formal presentation of the member.
Any special guests of the IOC meetings shall be placed with the members of their country. If no member is present, they shall be placed at the end.

If at any time the above precedence should clash with the official protocol of the country when the IOC is invited by the Head of State or head of government, the Organizing Committee shall refer this to the President of the IOC.

When the Presidents of IFs or NOCs are not present in person, their representatives shall be given the same precedence. Additional delegates at formal presentations, opening ceremonies, meetings, etc., shall be grouped with their President, but for seating at dinners they may be interspersed, after the IOC members have been placed in Olympic protocol.

Agenda

The agenda is prepared by the IOC in conformity with Rule 15 of the Olympic Charter. Members of the IOC, NOCs and Boards of IFs administrating sports on the Olympic programme have the right to propose items for the agenda, such proposals to be presented to the President not later than three months before the meeting. Proposals forwarded by members of the IOC are submitted to the Session together with the advice of the Executive Board. The acceptance of the other proposals is due to the decision by the Executive Board.

Debates at Sessions

1. At the Session, the Chairman of each Commission presents his commission’s report to be concluded with a recommendation by simple majority vote of the members of this commission.

2. The President subsequently calls out each heading of the Commission minutes, which is then open for debate.

3. Only one speech per person is permitted under each heading of the Commission minutes, except for points of order and explanations by the Chairman.

4. Each heading may, by simple majority vote, be:
   a) referred back to the Commission for further consideration, or
   b) rejected, otherwise it becomes automatically approved.

5. These Rules also apply to the resolutions proposed individually by IOC members.

6. The proposer of a motion has the right to speak last.
6. Programme

In order to avoid any mistake in the publications produced by the Organizing Committee, all proofs must be submitted to the IOC Secretariat.

The programe of the Sessions which should not include more than three receptions must be approved by the Executive Board. A pro­gramme for guests may be arranged by the Organizing Committee.

The detailed programme, together with a list of all persons attending the Session, with their addresses, must be available to IOC mem­bers on their arrival in the host city.

a) Conference hall

A conference hall in the same hotel, or nearby, big enough to accommodate all members, shall be put at the disposal of the IOC in accordance with further instructions of the Secretary General of the IOC.

During the Sessions and the meetings of the Executive Board with the International Federations or with the National Olympic Com­mittees, the table at which the Executive Board shall sit, as well as the President’s seat, must be raised.

The Session’s emblem must be fixed in front of the tribune where the President sits and the Olympic flag must be placed behind him.

During the meetings of the Executive Board with the IFs or the NOCs, a tribune on the President’s right must be reserved for members of the IOC wishing to attend the meeting.

Extra seats must be available in the conference hall for Commissions or delegations which have to report to the IOC.

b) Meeting rooms

Rooms shall be available for meetings of official IOC Commissions or delegations which have to report to the IOC.

c) Simultaneous translation/tape-recording facilities

Simultaneous translation equipment shall be provided according to the instructions of the Secretary General of the IOC.

Simultaneous translation of the IOC Session (English, French, Spanish, Russian, German and Arabic, plus possibly the host country language) must be available not only for the IOC and the Secretariat, but also for any delegations, representatives of IFs or NOCs, who may be attending a particular meeting.

In order to ensure an appropriate standard of simultaneous translation, the IOC Secretariat may provide the interpreters required for the compulsory languages, at the normally applicable rate of the market. The cost of these interpreters shall be met by the Organizing Committee.

Tape-recording equipment for the Session shall be provided according to the instructions of the Director of the IOC.

All recordings of conferences or meetings must be made.

d) Film and slide projectors

Film and slide projectors as well as a screen must be set up in the conference hall in case they are required. An operator must also be available.

e) Secretariat

Rooms for the Secretariat must be provided, and furnished and equipped with typewriters, photocopying and duplicating machines, as well as the necessary paper and meeting headed paper, all in sufficient quantities. The official colours for circulars are: white – French; pink – English; blue – language of the country where the meeting is held; green – French and English.

English and French secretariat personnel, and a photocopying and duplicating machine operator should be put at the disposal of the Secretary General of the IOC, according to his or her requirements.

Access to the Secretariat must be strictly limited to persons authorised by the Secretary General of the IOC.

7. Technical facilities

During the Sessions of the IOC, only the following may enter the conference hall:
1. IOC Secretariat.
2. Accredited shorthand reporters and recorders.
3. Official interpreters.
4. Those summoned by the President.

The Secretariat of the IOC shall always have access to the President of the IOC and the IOC members during the Olympic Games, Sessions or meetings.

Any organizers, hostesses, etc., must not be in the room. Communication must be arranged for the President and the Secretary General to call messengers, if necessary.

The Organizing Committee is responsible that no one enters the conference or ante-room either during or between sessions without permission from the President or the Administrateur Délégué and the Secretary General of the IOC.

Session-headed papers must be provided in sufficient quantity for the members and the Secretariat of the IOC.

Waste-paper basket facilities, as well as note pads and pencils must be provided in the meeting rooms. All waste-paper must be destroyed by a responsible person selected by the IOC.

The Organizing Committee is responsible for all security arrangements during meetings.

8. Press and photographers

It is usual for the international press to attend the meetings of the IOC. All newsmen wishing to follow the proceedings of these meetings must obtain an accreditation from the IOC Director of Information with the agreement of the Administrateur Délégué. The Organizing Committee of the Session may nominate a press attaché but he must follow the instructions given by the IOC Director of Information with the agreement of the Administrateur Délégué.

A room must be provided for the press, as well as a press room with interpreters for any press conference the President, the Administrateur Délégué or other authorised persons may wish to hold during or after the session.

Also facilities must be available for the immediate translation into French, English and the language of the host country of any press releases which the President may wish to authorise during or after the Session.

A reception shall be offered by the Organizing Committee to press representatives following the press conference given by the President at the end of the Session.

Hotel accommodation should be available for press representatives.

Photographs may be taken during a ten-minute period in the first working session on the first day. All cameras and tripods, etc., must be removed immediately.

Any other matters not considered above shall be decided by the Secretary General consulting, if necessary, the President and/or the Administrateur Délégué.

10. For candidate cities holding IOC Sessions

A draft contract will be submitted once the candidature has been presented.
II. INTERNATIONAL YOUTH CAMP

Youth camps organized pursuant to Rule 71 of the Olympic Charter must comply with the following conditions:

— Only young people who are not less than eighteen nor more than twenty-two years of age, and who have been chosen by their respective National Olympic Committees by reason of their own sports performances or their deep interest in sport and also by reason of their good character, shall be eligible to attend the camps. The entries shall be submitted by each NOC to the OCOG.

— The number of young people to attend the camps shall be limited. The relevant Organizing Committee shall be responsible to fix the total number of young people (within a maximum of 1,500 and a minimum of 500) who may attend the camp, and also to fix the quotas to be nominated by each National Olympic Committee to attend.

— The costs and expenses of young people attending the camps shall be borne by the interested parties. The Organizing Committee concerned shall determine the manner in which those costs and expenses shall be defrayed. It is, however, recommended that each National Olympic Committee shall make a grant to cover the necessary costs and expenses of the young people they nominate to attend.

— The camps must be open for at least the whole of the duration of the Olympic Games, but they shall not be open for more than thirty days in all.

— Separate accommodation for the young men and young women at the camps shall be provided under adequate conditions of comfort and hygiene.

— Demonstrations or exhibitions of any kind by way of propaganda for political, religious, racial or advertising purposes shall be forbidden within the camps which shall be deemed to be Olympic sites.

— The programme of camp activities shall include sporting, cultural and folklore items, and those attending the camps shall also be granted free admission to some of the competitions and events at the Olympic Games and to cultural displays that are organized on the occasion of the Olympic Games at the discretion of the Organizing Committee.
III. OLYMPIC FLAG

The Olympic flag can only be hoisted on the authorisation of the IOC.
MODEL CONSTITUTION
FOR A NATIONAL OLYMPIC COMMITTEE

Article 1

Under the terms of the Olympic Charter (and in accordance with the provisions of law No. ... of ... governing associations), a non-profit association called the ... (adjective formed from the name of the country) Olympic Committee shall hereby be set up by those individuals or legal entities abiding by this constitution. The duration of the association shall be unlimited. Its headquarters shall be situated at ... but may be transferred to any other location by decision of the Executive Committee. The association shall have (shall not have) legal personality.

Article 2

The ... Olympic Committee shall have, among others, the following aims:

a) to ensure the development and protection of the Olympic Movement and sport in general;

b) to observe and enforce the Rules as laid down in the Olympic Charter;

c) to disseminate among young people an interest in sport and a sporting spirit;

d) to organize, together with the respective national federations, the preparation and selection of athletes, thereby ensuring that its country is represented at the Olympic Games, as well as at regional, continental and intercontinental games having the patronage of the IOC;

e) to undertake the organizations of these Games when they are held in its country;

f) to submit proposals to the IOC with regard to the Olympic Charter, the Olympic Movement in general as well as the organization and conduct of the Olympic Games;

g) to collaborate with private or government bodies in connection with the promotion of a sound sports policy;
h) to safeguard its absolute autonomy and to resist all pressures whether of a political, religious or economic nature.

Article 3

The ... Olympic Committee shall be composed of:

a) representatives of the national federations, at least five of which shall be affiliated to International Federations recognized by the IOC as governing a given sport (at least three of these federations must govern a sport featuring on the Olympic programme);

b) the member(s) of the IOC in the country, if any;

c) distinguished persons, citizens of the country, who may enable the ... Olympic Committee to perform its tasks more effectively, or who have rendered eminent services to the cause of sport and Olympism;

d) honorary members (not entitled to vote);

e) patrons (not entitled to vote);

The members of the ... Olympic Committee must be nationals of age and in full possession of their civil and political rights. Unless they are at fault, they shall not be personally responsible for the debts of the Committee.

The members of the ... Olympic Committee shall perform their duties on a voluntary basis with the exception of those concerned with the administration of sport. They may, however, be reimbursed for travelling, subsistence and any other justified expenses incurred by them in connection with their duties.

Article 4

Membership of the ... Olympic Committee shall cease:

a) upon disbandment of the federation to which the member belongs;

b) upon resignation or death;

c) upon expulsion by the Executive Committee following a hearing given to the member concerned, for the following reasons:
   — non-payment of annual subscription, should such exist;
   — infringement of this constitution or of the Olympic Charter;
   — loss of the country’s nationality or of civil and political rights.
Article 5

The bodies of the ... Olympic Committee shall be:
a) the General Assembly;
b) the Executive Committee.

Article 6

The General Assembly shall be the highest body within the ... Olympic Committee.

It shall be composed of all members referred to in article 3 above and shall meet in ordinary session at least once a year in order to:
— hear the President's report;
— examine the report on the activities of the Executive Committee, presented by the Secretary General, for its approval;
— examine the accounts of the previous financial year, as presented by the Treasurer;
— approve a budget for the following year;
— in general, decide on all items on its agenda.

Article 7

The General Assembly shall meet in extraordinary session at the request of at least two thirds of its members.

It shall also hold a special meeting every four years to elect the members of the Executive Committee and to designate a President from among them.

Article 8

The General Assembly can validly act only on those items appearing on its agenda. Proposals concerning the agenda must reach the Secretary General no later than ... days prior to the session. Members shall be notified of the date set for the session at least ... days in advance.

The General Assembly can validly act only if at least one half of the members are present. Decisions shall be made by a simple majority of members present.

Article 9

Each member referred to in article 3a), b) and c) above shall be entitled to vote as follows:
— IOC members, if any, shall have the right to vote on both the General Assembly and the Executive Committee;
the national federations affiliated to IF recognized by the IOC as controlling their sport or their representatives as chosen by them must constitute the voting majority on the NOC and its Executive Committee;

— for items of a specifically Olympic nature, only the votes of the NOC’s Executive Committee and of the national federations affiliated to an IF governing a sport included in the Olympic programme are taken into consideration.

Article 10

Between sessions of the General Assembly, the ... Olympic Committee shall be administered by an Executive Committee comprising the following persons:

a) the President;
b) ... representatives of the national federations referred to in article 3 above;
c) the member(s) of the IOC in the country, if any;
d) ... persons from among those mentioned in article 3c) above;
e) the Secretary General;
f) the Treasurer.

The Executive Committee shall hold meetings at least once a month. It can validly act only if at least one half of its members are present. Decisions shall be made by a simple majority of members present. For items of an Olympic nature, the national federations must constitute the voting majority. The Executive Committee may deal with all questions of interest to the ... Olympic Committee. In case of equal votes, the President shall have the casting vote.

Article 11

The meetings of the Executive Committee shall be convened by the President, at least ... days prior to the meeting, and the convening notice shall include the agenda of the meeting.

The President of the Executive Committee shall also be President of the ... Olympic Committee and act on behalf of this Committee in all respects vis-à-vis third parties.

Article 12

The finances of the ... Olympic Committee shall be derived from, among others:
a) membership subscriptions if these are introduced by the General Assembly;
b) subsidies from the State, public entities and other bodies;
c) gifts and bequests that the General Assembly may accept;
d) proceeds from events like Olympic Day, from stamp issues, the sale of emblems, the publication and sale of printed material, the granting of licences to third parties for the use of the ... Olympic Committee’s official emblem;
e) fees for services rendered.

Article 13

The ... Olympic Committee may have its own emblem which must be approved by the IOC.

Article 14

This constitution may be amended, or the ... Olympic Committee disbanded, by a General Assembly convened especially for that purpose with the proviso that at least two thirds of the members shall attend and that the decision shall be made by at least two thirds of the members present. Should this quorum not be reached, the General Assembly shall be convened a second time, at least ... days after the previous session, and the amendments to this constitution or the disbandment may then be carried by a vote of two thirds of the members present, irrespective of their number.

Article 15

The working of the bodies of the ... Olympic Committee may be detailed in regulations approved by the General Assembly.

Article 16

Should there be any doubt concerning the interpretation of this constitution, or omissions or discrepancies between it and the provisions of the Olympic Charter, the latter shall prevail.

Article 17

This constitution was approved by the IOC on ... upon completion of the formalities laid down in the Olympic Charter.
OLYMPIC AWARDS

The prizes given to winners in the Games of the Olympiad and the Winter Games are described in Rule 64 of the “Olympic Charter". Other awards made by the International Olympic Committee are:

The Olympic Order.
The Olympic Cup.

OLYMPIC ORDER (created in 1974)

Regulations

Article 1
An Olympic Order has been created, involving the award of a decoration to be worn personally by the recipient. In addition each recipient receives a diploma. In exceptional circumstances, this decoration will be in gold.

Article 2
Only individuals may be beneficiaries.

Article 3
Any person who has illustrated the Olympic ideal through his action, has achieved remarkable merit in the sporting world, or has rendered outstanding services to the Olympic cause, either through his own personal achievement or his contribution to the development of sport, may be admitted to the Order.

Article 4
A Council of the Olympic Order has been created within the IOC. The President of the IOC in office shall preside over it. The three Vice-Presidents of the IOC must be members of it.

Article 5
The lists of nominations form annual quotas proposed by the Order’s Council and decided upon by the Executive Board.
Article 6

Active members of the IOC may not be admitted as such into the Olympic Order.

Article 7

Members of the Olympic Order may be expelled if they commit a crime against honour or publicly deny the Olympic ideal. Only the IOC, at its plenary meeting, on the proposal of the Order's Council and upon the Executive Board's agreement, is empowered to take this decision.

Article 8

The recipient is considered by the Order's Council as having satisfied his country's regulations. It is his duty to take in advance any steps as may be necessary with the authorities of his country.

Article 9

The candidate must sign a declaration accepting entry into the Olympic Order notwithstanding the conditions of article 8.

Article 10

The insignia of the Olympic Order and the diploma are conferred upon the recipient by the President or a member of the IOC nominated by him; or failing that, someone approved by the President.

Article 11

The official and obligatory protocol stipulates that the insignia of the Olympic Order must be conferred after the following speech:

«Mr.... (surname, given name, and, where applicable, his Olympic titles only), in recognition of your outstanding merit in the cause of world sport and your faithfulness to the Olympic ideal as illustrated by Pierre de Coubertin, Renovator of the Olympic Games, I award you (in the name of the President of the IOC) the Olympic Order.»

La 87e session du C.I.O. réunie à Sarajevo en 1984 a décidé que dorénavant l'Ordre Olympique serait décerné sans distinction entre l'argent et le bronze. L'Ordre d'or sera remis à titre exceptionnel.

In 1984, at the 87th Session of the IOC in Sarajevo, it was decided that in future there would be no distinction between the silver and bronze order. The gold order would continue to be awarded in exceptional circumstances.

LA COUPE OLYMPIQUE

THE OLYMPIC CUP

Fondée par le baron Pierre de Coubertin en 1906, la Coupe Olympique est attribuée à une institution ou association au rayonnement étendu et à l'action désintéressée, ayant rendu à la cause du sport des services éminents ou ayant concouru avec succès à la propagation de l'idée olympique. La coupe reste au siège du C.I.O. au Château de Vidy, et son titulaire en reçoit une reproduction.

Instituted by Baron Pierre de Coubertin in 1906, the Olympic Cup is awarded to an institution or association with a general reputation for merit and integrity which has been active and efficient in the service of sport and has contributed substantially to the development of the Olympic Movement. The Cup remains at the Château de Vidy, the recipient being given a reproduction.
